

ISTQB® Website – Conference Network Form

The goal of the ISTQB® Conference Network is to have a continuous listing for all events that are held on a regular basis. In order to publish your event on ISTQB® website, you are required to:

- Insert a general description of the event, which can explain, for example, what the event is about, how it is structured and its objectives. The description should not contain specific information related to the current or next edition;
- Indicate all the other general information about the Events (Organizer, Frequency, etc.)
- Attach the event logo when you're sending back the form.
