

Media Release

Brussels, May 20, 2019

ISTQB® elected new Executive Team

During the General Assembly meeting of ISTQB® - the International Software Testing Qualifications Board - held in Yerevan, Armenia on Friday 3rd of May 2019, elections for the new Executive Committee for ISTQB® were conducted.

ISTQB® has confirmed Mr. Olivier Denoo, President of the French Testing Board (CFTL), as President for the period 2019-2021. Olivier Denoo has been active in ISTQB® since 2012, as the ISTQB® Governance officer from 2016 to 2019.

Elections of the other members of the Executive Committee for the period 2019-2021 brought to the following results:

- Mr. Geoff Thompson, from the UK & Ireland Testing Board (UKITB) was elected as Vice-President for a second term.
- Mr. Tal Pe'er from the Israeli Testing Certification Board (ITCB), former Secretary, was elected as Treasurer.
- Mr. Kari Kakkonen from the Finnish Software Testing Board (FISTB), former Treasurer was elected as Secretary

The ISTQB® General Assembly wishes the new ISTQB® Executive team good luck in the next two years of their terms.

The new President takes over from Ms. Karolina Zmitrowicz. The ISTQB® General Assembly thanks Karolina for her work and contribution to ISTQB.

About ISTQB®

The International Software Testing Qualifications Board is a non-profit organization, headquartered in Brussels, Belgium, whose mission is to advance the software testing profession. It is supported in its operations by 59 member boards, covering more than 120 countries worldwide. As of December 2018, ISTQB® has issued over 641.000 certificates.

For more information visit: www.istqb.org